Love is in the Alpine air: Rosa Alpina's rooms ooze romance and refinement

LIFE IS ROSA

It's time to pack the thermals and head to the clear air of the mountains where it's not just about skiing. There are plenty of things to do at altitude and the mix of fur rugs, cosy fires and gluhwein add up to a sexy week away. Stay at the Rosa Alpina (inset) in Italy's San Cassiano, nestled in the beautiful Alta Badia valley, surrounded by the stunning Dolomites. After a day on the piste, pamper her in the Daniela Steiner Spa. Its Special Skin Care For Two - a volcanic clay treatment and a steam followed by a milk and honey Cleopatra bath - is essential. End the day by feasting in the two-star Michelin restaurant, St Hubertus. Seven nights in a deluxe double room, breakfast and BA flights from Gatwick to Venice, from £1,840. 01244 202000, seasonsinstyle.com
