

HOTEL ROSA ALPINA, located at the center of San Cassiano in the spectacular Italian Dolomites, has been awarded a second Michelin star for its outstanding St. Hubertus restaurant. (One regional specialty is fillet of beef wrapped in hay!) An utterly charming family-run property, it is an idyllic hideaway for either

A winter skiing or summer hiking.
Daniela Steiner, wife of owner Paolo
Pizzinini, opened its small spa in 1989
and now runs a company that provides spa services for, among other places,
the Ritz in Paris. Tel. (39) 471-849500.

www.rosalpina.it

208800AA